If anyone in your household receives additional income:

Find out what proof of income documentation you need before you start your application for the Connecticut Energy Assistance Program (CEAP).

Q: What type of ADDITIONAL INCOME does your household receive?

A: Social security, unemployment, or veterans' benefits	A: Contributions from friends / relatives	A: Pensions or annuities	A: Rental income	A: Alimony, child support, or adoption benefits
You must provide: • Award letter(s), • Copy of recent check • A printout of Unemployment Compensation Benefits • V.A Award Letter	You must provide: • Signed statement from friends / relatives who are contributing to your household's income	You must provide: • Recent 1099, pension statement OR • Signed statement from income source (on their letterhead)	You must provide: • Copy of a recent rent receipts for rental income, • Lease agreement	You must provide: • Bank statement showing direct deposits, • Copy of a recent check, OR • Award letter(s)