Subject: Building Management Plan
Nutmeg Solar Project
Broadbrook Road
Enfield, Connecticut

Dear Mr. George:

The State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) has reviewed the additional information submitted in regards to the above project. The proposed activities are under the jurisdiction of the Connecticut Siting Council and are subject to review by this office pursuant to the Connecticut Environmental Policy Act (CEPA). The proposed facility is located within a 184.5 acre study area straddling both sides of Broadbrook Road, and roughly bounded to the south by Charnley Road, to the east by an Eversource electrical transmission line corridor, to the north by Abbe and Bailey Roads, and to the west by a developed residential area. The proposed facility includes photovoltaic (PV) solar panels, racking, access roads, and related ancillary equipment.

The subject parcel, within a larger complex of the historic farmstead, is potentially eligible for listing on the State Register of Historic Places for its association with the agricultural history of tobacco farming within the Connecticut River Valley. Two tobacco sheds within the project area, identified as Building 12 and Building 13, were initially proposed to be demolished, which would constitute an adverse effect to historic resources. In a letter dated January 2, 2019, this office recommended that a protection plan be formulated for the tobacco sheds located on the property, and that they be incorporated into any future development of the northern section of the parcel.

Since that time, the project sponsor, through its consultant, has agreed to consider alternatives to demolition of Buildings 12 and 13. Though a final decision has not been reached between the project sponsor and SHPO, the project sponsor has agreed to ongoing consultation regarding the future of the sheds until an agreement is finalized.

Furthermore, the project sponsor has also agreed to professionally document Buildings 12 and 13. Documentation shall meet the state-level documentation standards of SHPO and, at a minimum, include indexed high-quality photographs, a site plan, and narrative text. Final documentation will be provided to SHPO for permanent archiving and public accessibility.

This office appreciates the opportunity to review and comment upon this project, and looks forward to continued consultation and resolution of the project. These comments are provided in accordance with the Connecticut Environmental Policy Act.
