Ms. Bachman,

Good afternoon. Thank you for providing the correspondence clarifying the status of the above-referenced Petition. Failure to remove the "DRAFT" watermark was, indeed, an inadvertent oversight. The draft that was submitted is considered the final version of the document. Let me know how to best resolve the situation, if the file I sent earlier without the watermark will not suffice. I look forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards,

Good morning, Ms. Wolfman.

Thank you for this information. However, this does not effectively resolve the issue with the entire text of the petition marked "draft." We will send formal correspondence requesting written confirmation that the petition that was submitted last week is a final petition as questions about the draft watermark have already arisen.

Thanks.
