

CT Social Equity Council Votes on Workforce Development and Social Equity Plans

HARTFORD (February 7, 2023) — Connecticut's Social Equity Council (SEC) today voted to accept CohnReznick's recommendation on three workforce development plans. Two of these plans were recommended for approval while one was recommended for denial. The denied applicant may re-submit a revised workforce plan for consideration.

The SEC also voted to approve a social equity plan for Fine Fettle EJV.

All applicants seeking social equity status are first reviewed by the auditing and accounting firm of CohnReznick, a third-party reviewer hired by the SEC to create a comprehensive review system.

The adult-use cannabis market opened on January 10, 2023 at licensed retailers. For information about Adult-Use Cannabis, visit www.ct.gov/cannabis.

About the CT Social Equity Council (SEC)

The Social Equity Council was created to make sure the adult-use cannabis program is grown equitably and ensures that funds from the adult-use cannabis program are brought back to the communities hit hardest by the "war on drugs." The SEC oversees the verification of equity applicants, creates new programs to support cannabis businesses and businesses in other industries, and manages the more general community investments derived from the cannabis tax revenue.
