STATE OF CONNECTICUT
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

ANTI-HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Purpose:

The Workers' Compensation Commission (WCC) is committed to providing a work environment in which all people are treated with respect and dignity. All employees are expected to participate in this effort.

Prohibited Conduct:

Federal and state law, including Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a)(1), and the Connecticut Fair Employment Practices Act, C.G.S. §46a-60 et seq., prohibit various forms of discrimination and illegal harassment in employment.

WCC strictly prohibits discrimination, including sexual harassment and harassment based on all of the following legally protected classes: race; color; religious creed; age; sex; pregnancy; sexual orientation; gender identity or expression; marital status; national origin; ancestry; intellectual disability; genetic information; learning disability; physical disability (including, but not limited to, blindness); mental disability (past/present history thereof); status as a victim of domestic violence; status as a victim of sexual assault; status as a victim of trafficking in persons; military or veteran status; or criminal record in state employment,.

"Harassment" means any verbal, physical, graphic, or written conduct when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for an employment decision affecting that individual; or
- Such conduct interferes with another's work performance or creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile work environment.

WCC shall not tolerate discrimination or harassment on the basis of a protected class by anyone, including any supervisor, co-worker, vendor, client or customer, whether in the workplace, at assignments outside of the workplace, at WCC-sponsored social events, or elsewhere.

Reporting Discrimination and Harassment:

1. Claimants – If you believe that you are being harassed or otherwise discriminated against because of your protected class, you should immediately report the harassment/discrimination to any one of the following:

    - Your supervisor or manager;
    - WCC's Leadership Associate – Equal Employment Opportunity, Andy Pixley (860) 969-8440; or
    - WCC's Human Resources Generalist 2, Bonnie Steele (860-785-9855).

2. Witnesses – Any employee who witnesses harassment or other forms of discrimination prohibited under this policy or becomes aware that another employee has been subjected to such harassment or discrimination is also urged to immediately report the conduct via one of the three avenues listed above.

3. Supervisors and Managers – Any supervisor or manager who receives a complaint about prohibited harassment or other forms of discrimination or who believes that someone is engaging in such conduct, are mandated to report it to Andy Pixley or Bonnie Steele. Ignoring such conduct is not optional and may subject the supervisor or manager to disciplinary action.

No Retaliation:

WCC strictly forbids retaliation against employees who report discrimination, including harassment, or who participate in internal or external investigations involving such conduct. Agents of WCC shall not retaliate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, harass, or interfere with any individual exercising or enjoying their rights under Federal or State law or because an individual aided or encouraged any other individual in the exercise of rights granted or protected by State or Federal law. All employees are strongly urged to report all instances of retaliation via one of the avenues listed above.

Investigating Complaints:

WCC takes all complaints and reports of harassment and discrimination seriously. All complaints and reports will be investigated promptly. All employees are expected to cooperate fully with all administrative complaint investigations and any actions taken by WCC resulting of such investigations.

Corrective Action:

If an investigation confirms that discrimination or harassment prohibited under this policy has occurred, WCC will take corrective action promptly. Discipline up to and including discharge from state service may be imposed.
